

This project has been developed by Corima, a global market leader for over 40 years and a proud member of the Marchesini Group galaxy since 2003. This innovative division offers a range of machine models, all of which are built in compliance with the highest quality standards of the pharmaceutical industry. Its continuous advances and successes have recently led this division to double the floorspace of its historic factory and develop more new and extraordinary machines

MARCHESINI GROUP

This project has been developed by Corima, a global market leader for over 40 years and a proud member of the Marchesini Group galaxy since 2003. This innovative division offers a range of machine models, all of which are built in compliance with the highest quality standards of the pharmaceutical industry. Its continuous advances and successes have recently led this division to double the floorspace of its historic factory and develop more new and extraordinary machines